ALINA DĂNILĂ

About Me

I am a recent graduate in Systems Engineering from the Faculty of Automatic Control and Computer Engineering. I have a strong passion for web development, particularly in the field of Front-End development. I am a reliable teammate, as well as efficient when working independently, and always open to challenges.

Experience

○ 07/2021 – 09/2021
Savnet Training Center
Summer Practice

During this summer program, I delved into networking concepts and Linux Essentials. I also engaged in online team projects using Packet Tracer. This experience allowed me to apply my knowledge to real-world networking challenges, enhancing my configuration, troubleshooting, and security skills, all while collaborating effectively with my teammates.

Education

○ 2019-2023
Technical University Gheorghe Asachi Iasi
Bachelor Degree in System Engineering at the Faculty of Automatic Control and Computer Engineering

○ Spring Semester of 2022
Eindhoven University of Technology, The Netherlands
ERASMUS+ Exchange Program

During the spring semester of 2022, I participated in a 5 months exchange program at Eindhoven University of Technology in The Netherlands. As an exchange student, I had the opportunity to immerse myself in a new academic environment and gain valuable knowledge and skills.
